

I have been a customer of Sonic.net for several years and have enjoyed excellent service and reasonable rates from them. I do not feel that this petition will be beneficial to anyone but the big companies that are already successful without putting the smaller companies in jeopardy. I would suspect that it will end up costing me more for any ISP service. Therefore I request that you decline the petition.

Thank you,

Roy Nisja